Superintendent's Yearbook
Message - 1998
Roy E. Belson

Please accept my congratulations as you graduate Medford High School. Your hard work has led to achievement, and that in turn earned you the recognition of a diploma. No one can take it away from you. You have learned much; but to be an effective adult you must continue learning everyday for the rest of your life. Life is a journey not a location. Today's status quo will be rapidly replaced by tomorrow's realities. Therefore, savor your attainment and the memorable moment of graduation, but don't be satisfied with it. View it as a landing on a long and winding staircase. Continue to climb; continue to grow so that you reach the top of your potential. Take charge of yourself; don't let circumstances control your destiny. Each of you will experience events and situations that generate feelings of frustration and hopelessness. Don't give up. The decisions you make rather than the conditions of the road will determine whether you are successful. Continuous lifelong learning both from books and experiences will help prepare you to make these right decisions. Look for opportunities that contribute to your learning. Don't be passive. Expand your horizons; challenge yourself; reach! In the words of Henry David Thoreau, "I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of man to elevate his life by a conscious endeavor." Make that commitment and bring others with you. Go for it!

Headmaster's Message

May your educational and social experiences from Medford High School during your four years of matriculation be lasting ones. The feeling of satisfaction in achieving your established goals will remain with you for a lifetime.

Each of you has made a contribution in helping to make Medford High School a better place for those who will follow. You have created a warm and caring atmosphere in which sound educational concepts were allowed to flourish, and under which all of you were given an opportunity to reach out and realize a fruitful harvest.

The future is now open to each of you to explore and experience new challenges that will help you gain higher levels of achievement. Life and all its complexities are strictly a matter of sorting out priorities and reaching out to attain your goals in a way that will lead to a more productive future. Life as we know it is filled with unknown treasures which need to be tapped and shared with the ones we love and respect. Therefore, it is incumbent upon each of you to seek out those treasures in the spirit of human-kind.

I trust that each of you will establish a genuine love of life that will help to nurture meaningful progress both personal and professional. Love of life also engenders a wholesome attitude that leads to positive thinking and to fulfillment.

I should like to leave the Class of 1998 with some thoughts from Ralph Waldo Emerson's essay "Self-Reliance": "There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better or worse as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernal of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given to him to till. The power which resides in him is new in nature, and none but he knows what that is which he can do, nor does he know until he has tried . . . Trust thyself: Every heart vibrates to the iron string . . . Nothing is at last sacred but the integrity of your own mind." As the Class of 1998 looks to the future, society will look to the Class of 1998 for leadership and guidance.

May all of you be blessed with unbridled good health and happiness to be enjoyed for a lifetime.

1998 Blue And White Dedication

Mr. Salvatore Todaro
Headmaster

It is the honor of the 1998 Blue and White Yearbook to present this dedication to long-time headmaster Salvatore Todaro.

Mr. Todaro attended Salem State College for his undergraduate degree and received his master's at the University of Massachusetts at Boston. He came to Medford High School shortly after and began teaching history while also coaching football and track. After seven years he became submaster and then assistant headmaster. In 1980 he became headmaster of Medford High School.

The class of '98 has only been able to experience a small part of Mr. Todaro's thirty-nine years at Medford High School. In these four years, through all the ups and downs that come with high school life, Mr. Todaro has always been able to provide support, structure and an inspiring optimism. The leadership that he has offered will stay with us throughout our lives as a constant reminder of what great things can happen with a little bit of Mustang pride. For his commitment and dedication to "my kids", and for everything else he has done for us, we thank him.

MR. LAWRENCE VOLPE, DIRECTOR

It is with a great deal of pride and satisfaction that I congratulate the Class of 1998 on a job well done. Your hard work and accomplishments during your four-year matriculation at Medford High School will stand you in good stead as you pursue future endeavors. A dwelling, no matter how expensive, is only as strong as its foundation. Your years of undergraduate study has given you the strongest foundation possible upon which to build your adult life. In addition to pure content, you have been trained in analytical thinking and problem-solving skills that can be applied to any situation that you may encounter.

You are now entering an exciting and challenging part of your life. Whether it be pursuing a career, post-secondary education, or military duty, you are the master of your destiny. Set your goals high, maintain a sense of humor, a positive attitude, be sensitive to the needs of those around you and success will be yours. You are entering a rapidly changing world, and you must be ready and willing to adapt to the landscape of society. Use the skills that you honed at Medford High School to make appropriate decisions when responding to the questions and challenges that the future will inevitably bring. It will not always be easy, but then the things we cherish most are not usually attained with little effort.

In closing, always remember what Medford High School has given you and be willing to give some of that back to your community and society. King George VI once said, "The highest distinction is service to others." If we follow this thought, society will be a better place for all. On behalf of the administration, faculty, and staff of Medford Vocational-Technical High School, I wish you a happy, healthy, and successful future.

In Recognition

The Class of 1998 would like to give a special thank you to a very important person in our lives for the past four years- Director of Guidance, Mr. Frank Howard. Mr. Howard has been a very special person to the Class of 1998, acting as a guidance counselor to many of us, while being a friend to all.

Mr. Howard was a 1964 graduate of Medford High School, and then went on to receive his Bachelors' degree in history at the University of Massachusetts- Amherst. After serving in the Army for a year and a half, he received a Masters in Counseling from Suffolk University. Mr. Howard then served as a Massachusetts State Policeman before becoming a guidance counselor at Everett High. Mr. Howard finally came to Medford High School as a guidance counselor in 1987, and became Head of Guidance in 1990.

Mr. Howard's interaction with college and admissions officers is an asset to the students, as Mr. Howard's influence has helped many a student get into their college of choice. Mr. Howard commented on the Class of 1998, "I have a great fondness for this class because I not only see them as a school counselor which is sometimes in an upbeat and positive mode, I was also their submaster for a year so I was their disciplinarian, which brought me closer to them". Mr. Howard, for your hard work, patience, kindness, dedication, and support we thank you, you will never truly know what you mean to the Class of 1998.

IN MEMORIAM

The Loss of a Teacher and Friend

On the eighteenth of November, Medford High School lost a valuable member of its faculty, the world language teacher Lisa Loeb. Ms. Loeb's three years here were spent brightening the lives of many students, academically and socially.

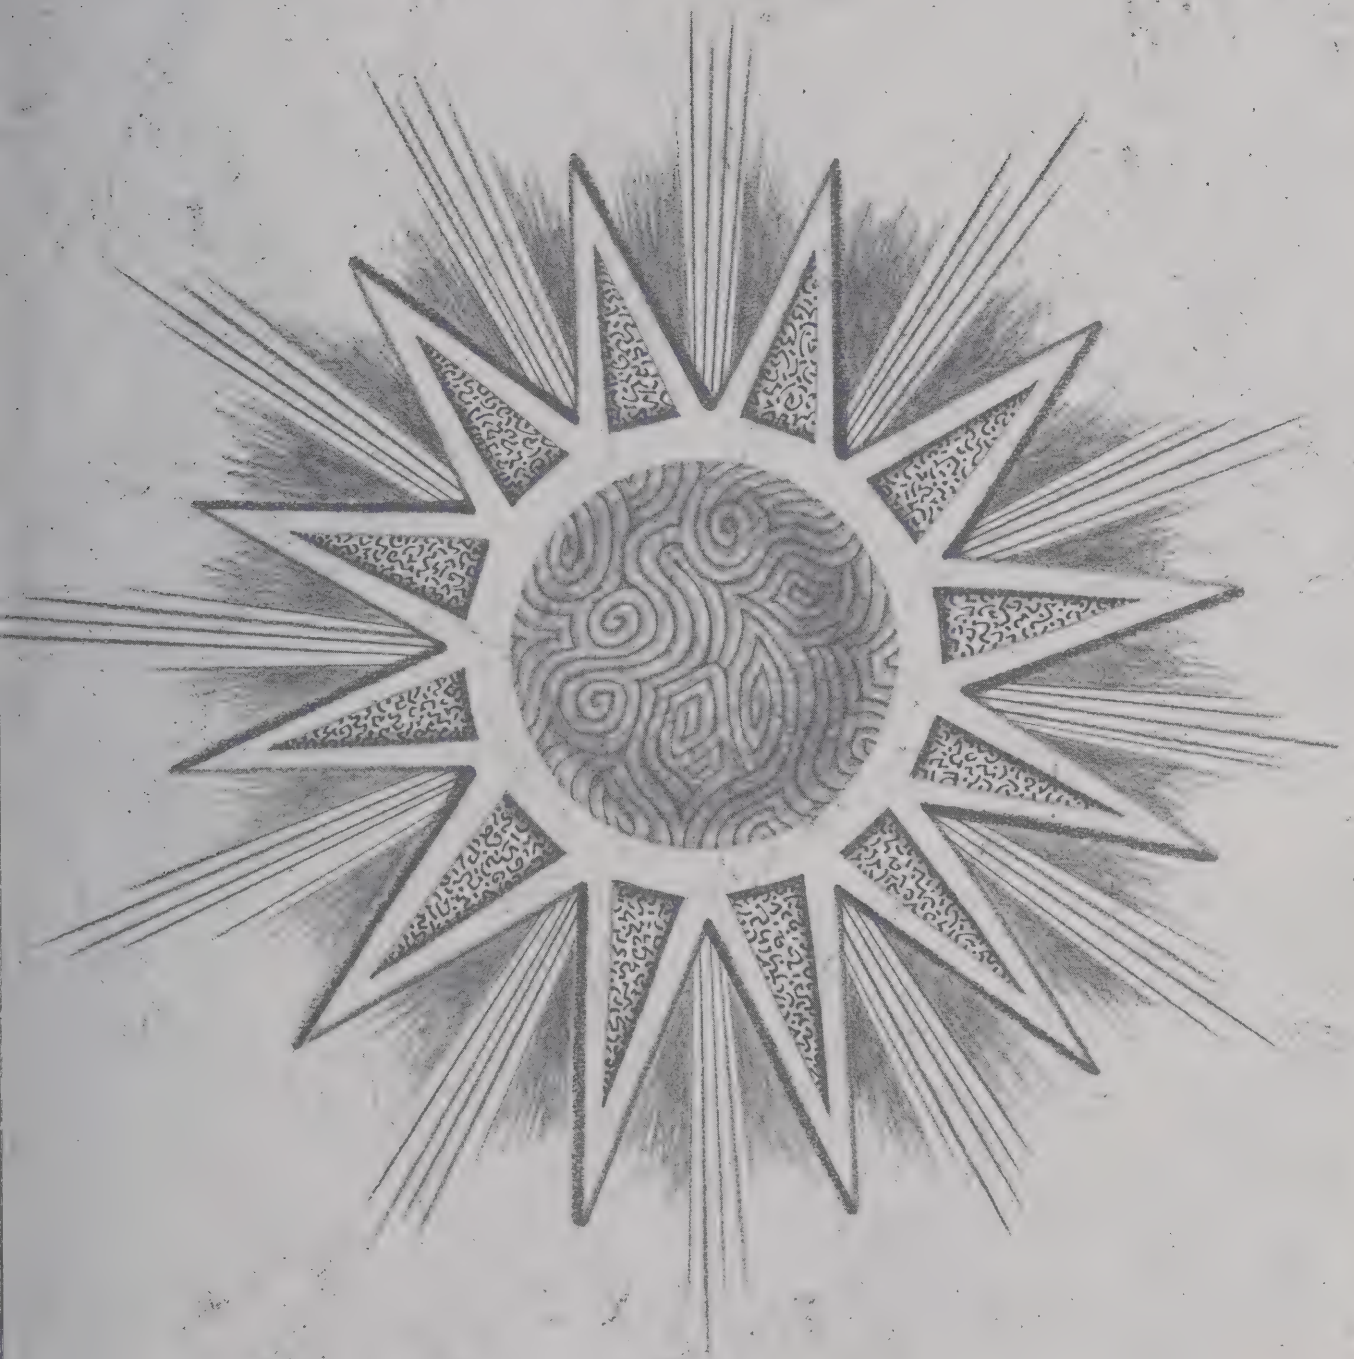

Outside the classroom, Ms. Loeb's life was vital and adventurous. She traveled often, to Latin America, Rumania, Italy, parts of Asia, and more. In addition to teaching, she was an art collector and ran her own catering business. These experiences she offered to her students, by inviting several of them to assist her on a volunteer trip to Honduras and by giving her classes an authentic flair. She was widely considered to be more than a "typical" teacher; instead, she brought her classes to life with games, music, decorations, anecdotes, and her own passion for the language. Students reminisce about the times she'd stand on her desk to play "Simon Says" in Spanish and the lunch periods she spent chatting with students. Ms. Loeb was a person students could turn to for counsel, for learning and for education.

The depth to which this educator touched the people around her was clear in the somber faces and tears of teachers and students the day her passing was announced. No longer will we see Ms. Loeb, rushing through the hallways calling "Hola!" to students and faculty members or speaking animatedly before a class. This star, which burned so bright, is now gone.

In our past yearbooks a popular message has been "Don't ever change." This is in many cases far from the truth. Since those times, I am glad to say I have changed. So has everyone else, to an extent. I want everyone in this class to positively mature and improve to the best of their ability. Remember, conformity is dull, expression and diversity make this world better. Sean, Evan, Rebecca and Rosie, I love you and I will miss you more than I can express with words. For Ursula, you rock, and Jessica mi hermana, and all my buds, you know who you are, bien suerte.

the only thing i pride myself on in mhs is that i surrounded myself with the brightest stars and the twinkling airplane lights. who, i'm sure, will turn out to be the most beautiful creatures i will ever meet in my life. Lisa, i will love you always and Adam, though you are ugly and annoying, you have been the best friend i have ever had. to all my faerie friends, and to all who are open to follow their dreams and embrace the magic of the high trees, i love you all. Mr Nelson, Mrs Champa, and, of course, Mrs. Mann-you guys are the best! to those who made my life miserable with your banality, i hope you stagnate and you are destined and we never meet again."what pretention, everlasting peace, everything must cease" "immerse your soul in love."

The Medford High School Football Team finished off their first winning season since 1991 with a 5-4-1 record. Led by Quad-Captains Frank Femino, Eric Giordano, John Murphy, and Joe Resendes, the team played extremely well, despite numerous injuries and difficulties. The strong defense of seniors Joe Resendes, Tim McCabe, John Murphy, Bryan Wells, Mike Vecchia, Eric Giordano, Nick DiMaria, Andre Straker, and Steve Ciampoli paved the way for a successful season; as did the offensive talents of Frank Femino, Jose Harris, Mike Fahey, Bryce Hopkins, Mike Smith, and D'Wayne D'Olyey. The Mustangs capped off their season with an impressive 34-8 victory over Malden on Thanksgiving Day. Frank Femino scored two touchdowns and rushed for 206 yards, as the team won their fourth consecutive victory over Malden in the annual Thanksgiving Day showdown.

Boys Soccer

The Boys Soccer Team took a giant step back in the right direction this year, recovering from last year's disappointing one win season. Led By Captains Mike Catricala, Mike Bourne, and C.J. Doherty, the team managed a 4-10-6 record under first-year head coach George Scarpelli and Assisstant Mark Peterson. The team received a huge boost from senior goaltender John Chiesa, as well as from senior halfback Adam Harold. The Mustangs also received excellent play from Dave Martinez, Mike Bourne, Kevin Peterson, and Mike Catricala.

Volleyball

The volleyball team may have started off slow, but during the past three years it grew and developed. The team started out with twelve players during its first year and now we have twenty-two, nine of whom are seniors. Co-Captains Denise Lester and Jeanette Cerullo led the team, while receiving excellent play from seniors Jessica Mattuchio, Lisa Bombino, Kerry Hourihan, Eileen Murphy, Amy Cadotte, Maggie Rebello, and Jill Morano. Varsity may have only won one game, but the team had a great year with a lot of expectations for next year.

Swimming

The 1998 Medford High Coed Swimming team had a good year, finishing off with a 2-5 record. Led by Tri-Captains Bill McDermod, Lauren Doyle, and Eileen Murphy and Head Coach Mary Judge, the team struggled throughout the season. A lack of experience may have kept the mustangs from winning several meets, but strong swimming from Seniors Mike Garland, Tom Graffeo, Bill McDermod, and Lauren Doyle kept the team afloat. The determined swimmers never gave up and remained positive about their season.

Hockey

The Mustang hockey team looks strong this year with a record currently of 9-5-2. After losing senior captain Mike Feeley to injury head coach Charlie Driscoll had cause for concern. However the underclassmen stepped up and have played hard. Junior captain Shawn Sheehan is leading the team in points with linemate Josh Hanson right on his tail. There has also been strong play from sophomore Joe Trant and freshman Joe Zappala.

Coach Driscoll feels the defense has played excellently. After losing Feeley in a preseason scrimmage Driscoll was looking for someone to step up and fill the void. He found this and more in senior Ray Brown. Brown has patrolled the blue line with the ferocity of a pit bull. He has also found time to act as a mentor, taking three young defensemen under his wing, frosh David Robicheaux and sophomores Joe Perry and Sean Westaway have benefitted greatly from Brown's leadership abilities. Senior Vinnie DeStefano has been strong in net.

Boys Basketball

First year head coach Chris Bartley came into the year knowing he had big shoes to fill. Former head coach Tom Ryser continually had his team in the tournament and last year won a Great Boston League title. It looked like the going would be rough at first with returning starters Jose Harris and Dwayne D'Oyley out with football injuries. However, Bartley pulled his troops together, Harris was back in action before Christmas, and the team currently sports a 8-0 record. The team got D'Oyley back for the new year and are starting to roll.

With his two starters out for the early season Coach Bartley looked to another returning starter, senior point guard Christian Mitchell, to lead the team. Mitchell did an excellent job guiding the young team from the floor. With the return of Harris and D'Oyley, Mitchell and the team have looked even better than before. Strong play has also come from John Chiesa, Shammon Long, David White, Anthony Collins, and John Pisapia.

The team was looking to get an early test, December 22, against Cambridge R & L. The two perennial powerhouses were looking to see who would have an early edge in the GBL. Unfortunately, due to the snowstorm, the game was postponed. Medford did not have long to wait until their next important game as they got the chance to play Everett, thought by many to be the third team in contention for the GBL, on January 2. The 'Stangs started the new year off right by holding off the Crimson tide, staking an early claim for the GBL title. Later that month the team participated in the Time Warner Local #27 January Jam. The team won the Marin Luther King weekend tournament quite handily for the fourth time.

Girls Basketball

The Medford High Girls Basketball team may have had a struggling year, but they never gave up under the determination and leadership of Senior Captains Breanna Lungo, Sara Swett, and Meghan Toomey. The girls ended their season with a 3-14-1 record in a tough Greater Boston League schedule. The Lady Mustangs have used a rather young roster this year, with many underclassmen filling important roles. Lauren Campbell, Jessica Kearn, Maureen Toomey, Arianna Lungo, and Kelly Krasco have contributed excellent play all season. In the first win of the season over Arlington, Head Coach Ernie Ardolino earned his 100th career victory. A bit of a dry spell then followed for the girls, but they came on strong towards the end of the season, winning two in a row over Peabody and Arlington Catholic. Senior Tri-Captain Breanna Lungo was the outstanding player in both games, scoring ten points against Arlington Catholic and sixteen against Peabody. Lungo also hit the game-winning shot with six seconds left to help defeat Peabody 51-50. The team was also helped by returning seniors Jill Morano and Keri Hourihan.

Indoor Track

Despite lacking numbers and upper-classmen, the Girls Indoor Track Team performed remarkably well, finishing with a 3-5 record in the Greater Boston League. Led by Tri-Captains Megan Driscoll, Kerri Ann Waite, and Lauren Kong, and under the guidance of first year Head Coach Jack Dempsey, the girls won several key meets. This is a very young team, with lots of hopes and expectations for next year.

The Boys Indoor Track Team had the blessing of senior leadership. Led by Captains Steve Mancini, Rick Alpers, and Anthony Berriola, the team also received strong contributions from Andre Straker, Mike Vecchia and Chris Irving. The boys ended their season with a 4-4 record, with lots of great expectations for years to come.
